

What Can It Mean, That Jesus Is Arisen?

for Pastor Richard and Elaine Koenig

William A. Pasch (c) 2010
Based on Mark 9:24 and 16:1-8

KOENIG 11.11.11.5
Robert J. Weaver (c) 2010

$\text{♩} = 110$

1. What can it mean, that Je - sus is a - ris - en? Trem - bling, a -
2. Stone - sealed no more, the emp - ty tomb as - tounds us. Spic - es go
3. Faith would be firm, yet comes in fleet - ing frag - ments. Bone - breaths of
4. God, we be - lieve. God, help our un - be - liev - ing. You are the
5. Grief, fear, or pain still can - not stop our sing - ing. Un - bid - den mazed, we hur - ry in - to hid - ing, Fear - ing we have no words to tell the wast - ed, all our unc - tion fail - ing. On - ly a white - robed strang - er sits in long - ing, hearts in hes - i - ta - tion Yield still to hope: love's par - a - dox and Truth, whose depths we can - not fath - om. Dy - ing yet ris - ing, Christ is all a - forth flood bur - ied al - le - lu - ias. Now al - le - lu - ia! Ev - er al - le - sto - ry, Ev - en to our - selves. _____

wit - ness Of death's un - do - ing. _____ prom - ise. Life is the leap - ing. _____ round us, In us, and with us. _____ lu - ia! A - men! Yet A - men! _____